

ONLY TWO FIRES IN NOVEMBER

ONE FALSE ALARM AND TWO FIRES IS CHIEF'S RE- PORT.

Only two small fires and one false alarm is fire Chief Jones' report to the city council for the month of November. There was one fire on the extreme northern end of Alice street, damage $100, covered by insurance and one fire on Headland Avenue, damage $100 and covered by insurance. This makes the amount of insurance paid out in the city during the month of November $200 which covers damage on the only two fires occurring within the city limits during the 30 days.

The report for the month of October gave about the same total of fires which is the general average for the city for the past several months.

It is the number of fires that caused Fire Marshal Rice of Montgomery to give Dothan such severe criticism in an open statement appearing in the columns of the Montgomery Advertiser, which although denied and proven untrue by the local insurance men has never been corrected to the public.

Mr. Rice stated that there were 28 fires here in one month, thus causing this city to look dangerous in the eyes of the insurance companies interested here.

There is no need for the rates on insurance to advance in this city when such a complete fire department is maintained. just because Mr. Rice saw fit to express his opinion which was detrimental in every way. Dothan or the past few months has been having one of the smallest fire rates of any little in the state.

SHIP SWEET POTATOES

Bay Minette, Dec. 1.—The farmers of this district are very busy at present shipping their crop of sweet potatoes to Chicago where a market at $1.15 per bushel has been found. There have been five carloads shipped out and several other cars are soon to follow. The crop was one of the largest in a number of years and a good market is most welcome to the growers.

PENSACOLA DISSATISFIED

Pensacola, Dec. 1.—General dissatisfaction was expressed this afternoon when it became known that the census statistics announced gave Pensacola a population of only 23,000, a gain of 6,000 in the last ten years. It was confidently expected that the census would show a population of at least 30,000, and it is charged that the census enumerators showed gross neglect, failing to even count families of prominent men.

BEAUTIFUL BRIDGE PARTY

One of the most beautiful parties of the week was that at which Mrs. Leon McCord entertained Thursday afternoon when she complimented Mrs. Charles Harold, a charming bride of this week, and Mrs. Emmet Thigpen, of Dothan, an attractive visitor in the city, who formerly made her home in Montgomery.

A lavish placing of palms and yellow chrysanthemums made the home bright and attractive for the occasion. Four tables were arranged for the game of bridge, and the prize, a pair of silk hose, was won by Mrs. E. S. Thigpen. After the games, a two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. McCord was pretty in a gown of black crepe meteor, trimmed with lace.

Mrs. Harold wore a gown of blue messaline, veiled with marquisette and trimmed with gold.

Mrs. Thigpen wore a gown of black and white silk, veiled with black marquisette.

VESSEL ENTERS PANAMA CANAL

STEAM YATCH GOES AS FAR AS GATUN LOCK AND RETURN

New York, Dec. 1.—The first vessel to navigate a section of the Panama canal is the American three masted steam yatch Visitor II, owned by Commodore Harry Brown, of Pittsburg.

Word was brought here today by the United Fruit Company's steamer Zacapa that on November 23, the Visitor II, with Colonel Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, entered from the Atlantic side, went up as far as the Gatun lock and returned. The yatch draws about seventeen feet.

Dr. H. G. Perry of the Rockefeller Hookworm Commission, returned to Montgomery this afternoon after a few days stay in the city in interest of the work. Much interest has been caused in this work by the recent meetings held in Dothan.

Working Slow

The census department at Washington is working mighty slow. The first of the year is here, and there will be no figures that publishers can rely on, who are printing maps, reports off commercial institutions, such as Bradstreet's, Dunn & Co., and other directories that give population of towns and cities.

We don't remember so clearly about the census of ten year ago, but it seems to us like the information was nearly all in this time of the year.

There are but few of the larger cities that know their own population; some of the states know their population, and counties, but we don't now remember a half dozen cities in this state whose population has been announced.

Something ought to be done in Durand's department, to get a move on the business.

If they have hookworm, they ought to take the treatment.

All of the people who live in Dothan and Dothan territory, know that this is the best all-round town in the state. They know that we have more men here pulling for this town, and this territory than any other town has. They know that the merchants here offer more inducements for the people to come here than any other town you can get to. They know that the stocks the merchants carry are just as well selected as can be found in the cities and that you can always buy goods just a little cheaper.

Just as soon as this weather moderates sufficiently we are to have a mass meeting to see about that chautauqua next spring. Last spring was our first effort, and we worked under difficulties but then we had a successful chautauqua. Next year should be a successful one. If properly advertised, and proper care is given to the selection of the attractions, the chautauqua will bring thousands of visitors to Dothan, and they all spend money when they come here.

Every business house in Dothan should feel enough interest in the general appearance of his house, to keep it cleaned up, now that the streets are paved, and looking decent.

The town ought to put its chain-gang on the streets, grading them back in shape, those in the resident sections, just as soon as possible.

This about ends the cane grinding of this section, and we suppose that Houston county has the nicest supply of pure sugar cane syrup that it ever had. The county has plenty of pork to feed the people that live in it, but the pork is not as cheap as the former years.

During the present month, some man gets hard up and will sell a piece of real estate at a bargain—a Dothan bargain. You don't want to let an opportunity get by you, even if Christmas is just ahead, with its added expense.

A Florida citizen who had been tanked up on mail order whisky for several days, got his head in an awful shape. It probably hurt him and he couldn't get relief no other way, and shot a ball through the head, and now he doesn't care whether we have state-wide or not.

The men who make money by going in debt, are not the ones who buy more each month than their income amounts to, but they are men who go in debt to take care of their business, or for investments.

A man at Hartford presists in advertising his mules standing on their heads. Don't know that they are trick mules, he ought to know that people will read about good mules without putting them on their heads.

It is worth something to know that when you have made a payment on a piece of real estate in this section of Alabama some one will give you a profit just any time you get ready to turn it loose.

Some men will go out of their way to do you a flavor, and then dog the life out of you afterwards to let you know that they know you are under obligation to them. You better stop and pay such a fellow off.

The older we get as a town the better town we have. We have every indication, every symptom, of a town destined to double in population in about six years longer.

It is some consolation to the man who writes tommyrot every day to fill up the paper, that the people don't have to read it.

Speaking of the history of the tariff, who wants to know anything about a bad egg?

The teams have to hold back going and coming on our streets.

Only a few more days to order your whiskey.

Count the shopping days—count 'em.

THE HOOKWORM DEMONSTRATION

There will not be a hookworm demonstration tonight at the Criterion as there has been for the past two days but Dr. Orr thinks it probable that he will hold a demonstration there Monday afternoon at two o'clock. There will be no charge for the entertainment and a general explanation of the hookworm in all stages and a general discussion of sanitation will take place.

Mrs. Roy Hammond left yesterday afternoon for Montgomery, where she will reside in the future and Mr. Hammond will leave Monday for that city, where he goes into the Coast Line service.

C. T. Laney was a well known visitor from Abbeville yesterday.

THEY ARE LEADERS

The 125 odd suits that we had last week are proving leaders. These suits are selling, because they are all new of the latest styles and patterns, and because they are sold for

ONE THIRD LESS

You ought to come by and look at them—some excellent designs left, and you will have no trouble in being fitted. It is not often that you get suit-bargains of this character. This lot is on a rack—the bargain rack, where one-third is taken from the former price, and they are yours.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature to doing its work. ST. ELMO IS BILL TONIGHT

A large crowd was out last evening to see the W. I. Swain production of the western drama, "Jesse James." The play as presented by the Swain company is entirely different from others seen here.

Tonight the Swain company will present for the first time in this city an elaborate production of Augusta Evans' great American drama, "St. Elmo," with all the scenery, accessories and costumes. The story of "St. Elmo" reveals the life of a pure girl, born of humble parentage, who, through force of circumstances, is cast, an orphan, upon the cold, relentless world, with no protection save the inherent nobility of character. She spurs the foibles of polite society, and maps out a career of honor and usefulness. She then encounters St. Elmo, a character unique in fiction, whose soul, though steeped in the iniquities of a modern, gay, fashionable life, soared to a lofty eminence of usefulness under the gentle influence of this girl's angelic nature.

The story of St. Elmo is not all serious. Comedy is artfully interspersed to relieve the sombre element and render it the most absorbingly entertaining vehicle that has ever been staged.

The W. I. Swain Company does full justice to the intricacies of the plot.

See this performance tonight. Prices 15c and 25c. Doors open at 7:30, performance at 8:15 sharp. Free band concert at 7 p. m.

New to Him.

The hobble skirt was being discussed at the Colony Club in New York, says the Washington Post, and Miss Elizabeth Marbury, the famous dramatic agent, said with a smile:

"You'd think the hobble skirt had penetrated everywhere, but listen:

"In Camden, the other afternoon, a young girl in a brown hobble skirt hurried with short, quick steps to a foot ball game. Her skirt was tight enough in all consequence, but a narrow black band encircling it just below the knees drew it still tighter.

"As the young girl tripped out Middle street a coal heaver, laying down his shovel, ran after her.

"Say, miss," he said in a low, confidential tone, "yer belt's slipped down."

New York and Philadelphia.

She was a beautiful statuesque blonde who had changed her residence from New York to this city and secured a position as stenographer in the office of a staid, dignified citizen of good old Quaker descent, says the Philadelphia Telegraph. On the morning her first appearance she went straight to the desk of the boss.

"I presume," she remarked, "that you begin the day over here the same as they do in New York?"

"Oh, yes," replied the boss, without glancing from the letter he was reading.

"Well, hurry up and kiss me then," was the startling rejoinder. "I want to get to work."

The Privilege of Man.

B. E. Yonkum, chairman of the executive board of the Prison system of railroads, on one occasion took to task a young man in his employ who had announced his intention of marrying, says the Popular Magazine.

The youth in question was drawing a small salary, and Yonkum demonstrated with him on the ground that he could not afford to marry and that his wife would have to suffer great privations.

"Oh," said the young man, "I guess I've got as much right to starve a woman to death as any other man has."

Skeels to False Pride.

"The late John S. Hayler," said a New York confectioner, according to the New York Press, "was, for all his million and all his philanthropy, a man of drinking and eating habits of an excellent family. Mr. Hayler laughed at those persons who, in a dinner, say, 'Produce, please, of their ancient lineage.' A banker once complimented Mr. Hayler's presence, for he was descended from the Princess of Powys-Wales, seventh century, you know.

"Is that so?" drawled Mr. Hayler. "Yes, I heard a man tell your brother the other day that he could trace his family back to the days of armor and shirts of chain mail, and your brother said in answer:

"My wife made me stop my tracing when I got back to shirt sleeves and overalls."

Cottolene

Lard is the most commonly used cooking fat, yet, according to well-known authorities, not 10% of the food cooked with lard digests naturally and easily; the other 90%, instead of nourishing the body, merely clogs the digestive organs and starts stomach trouble.

Cottolene is as pure, nutritious and wholesome as olive oil, and makes food which any stomach can digest. It is more economical than lard because it goes one-third farther.

Cottolene shortens your food; lengthens your life.

Take Care

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Dr. Williams' Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years."

"THE MAN ON THE BOX"

Bert Leigh in "The Man on the Box" will be the offering at the Elite Thursday night, December 2nd, coming to Dothan with the original production direct from New York and using the same scenic equipment that Henry E. Dixey did with all the costume, set, and property effects that made this play famous in New York where it enjoyed a run of over two hundred nights at the Old Madison Square theatre and that was the talk of the country wherever it played. This production has been staged under the personal direction of Lionel Lawrence who produced it for his brother, W. N. Lawrence and who heartily endorses this company as being nearest to the original that has been offered to the amusement loving public since Mr. Dixey left to play under the direction of Henry W. Savage. Every detail has been carried out and looked after and the cast is all that would be expected in the ensemble. It equals, if not rivaling in some cases the original. "The Man on the Box" will be the social event of the season as many prominent society people have spoken.

ABOUT THE HOOKWORM DEMONSTRATION

Editor Dothan Eagle
Dear Sir — May I, through your interesting columns, thank Mr. H. J. Morris for the public spirited way in which he has helped in our present campaign. If in the minds of any, there lingers an idea that the hookworm demonstration was meant by Mr. Morris as a financial proposition, I can easily dispel it by saying that Mr. Morris, fearing some might stay away on account of the price, has offered to place the theatre entirely at our disposal for a free public health lecture.
Thanking you for the use of your space,
I am, etc.,
